

Monologue Role Scoring Sheet

Please answer the following questions in complete sentences. Really think about your character and what he/she wants in the scene. Your responses must be typed, double-spaced, 12pt font, Arial or Times New Roman font, 1 inch margins.

1. What does your character want in the chosen scene?
2. What does the character do to get it?
3. What obstacles stand in his/her way?
4. How does your character really feel about what is happening in the scene? How can you tell?
5. What does the character's language reveal about his or her personality?
6. Describe the 'moment before'.
7. What is your character's immediate environment? Describe everything from the sounds to the smells and colors.
8. How is your character similar to you? How is he/she different in terms of personality and expression?
9. How do your character's physical characteristics play a part in the scene?
10. What movement will you incorporate to show character or physical characteristics? (i.e.- posture, stance, placement of speech...)

Write down 3 phrases he says that might demonstrate something about his/her personality or are characteristic of his/her mode of expression. Discuss what your character is really saying, wanting, and feeling in that particular moment. Think about the subtext (the meaning behind the words).

Your paper might be set up like this-

Quote:

Subtext: